The Company announces the financial results forecast as ordinary income is expected to increase by more than 10% compared to the same period last year, mainly due to increases in interest on loans and gains on sales of securities.

In addition, the Company has revised our consolidated financial results forecasts upward for ordinary profit, due to net interest income such as interest on loans, net fees and commissions and gains related stocks are expected to exceed our plans and cost reductions continue to progress. There is no change to the previous forecast of 750 million yen for interim profit attributable to owners of parent.

The Company is currently reviewing the forecast for FY2024 (from April 1, 2024 to March 31, 2025), and will promptly notify if any revisions become necessary.
